The interior of St. Augustine's church in Montpelier is being beautified by the placing of 14 new stations that were recently purchased by the church. These 14 groups of statuary represent incidents surrounding the crucifixion of Christ. The figures are in plaster of paris delicately and naturally colored and form a distinct addition to the interior of the church. The stations were made and are being placed by the Da Prato Statuary Company of Chicago.

The following item from a Claremont, N. H., paper will be of interest to Barre people: A complimentary banquet was tendered Mr. George H. Gilman by some of his intimate friends among the young men of the town, at Hotel Claremont Tuesday night. Mr. Gilman is the pneumatic drill expert of the Sullivan Machine company, and has a wide popularity. This banquet was a delightful affair. Harry E. Harvey was toastmaster, and the speech of the evening was made by Attorney Leon E. Paige, who concluded by presenting to Mr. Gilman a gold Masonic charm in behalf of the company present.

Thos. Graham, Sachem; Alfred Robertson, Chief of Records.

CONCEALED IN HACK

Burlington Police Found Edward Delorme, Who Is Now in Jail.

Burlington, Nov. 6.—After waiting since October 29 to arrest Edward Delorme, a boy hackman, on charges of open and gross lewdness, Officer Moran early Sunday morning found the boy in a hack on Intervale avenue and took him to the lock-up. Delorme is wanted in connection with the cases against the Pettis and Barrett girls and Frank Robinson, another hackman. Delorme may also have to answer to charges of furnishing liquor to the girls and assisting them to escape from the police officers before he is through with the authorities. He has known that the police were looking for him and has kept out of sight. Officer Moran was coming down Intervale avenue early Sunday morning, when he noticed Robinson's hack. He searched it and found Delorme between two seats, covered up with a buffalo robe.

FELL THROUGH HOLE.

Truman P. Fuller of Burlington Sustained Broken Leg.

Burlington, Nov. 6.—Truman P. Fuller, the well known commercial traveler who resides at 21 Loomis street, broke a leg last evening shortly after six o'clock by falling through a hole in the baggage room at the railroad station. Mr. Fuller intended to leave for St. Albans this morning and was anxious to have his trunk checked. On account of the floor being torn up in the baggage room while the new boiler is being installed, the door leading to that room was closed and fastened. Mr. Fuller endeavored to force the door open and at first was unsuccessful. After a while it yielded and in the darkness he tumbled about eight feet into the cellar. His cries aroused the baggage master, who was near by, and Dr. S. E. Maynard was summoned. One leg was found to be broken above the knee. The leg was put in splints at the station and he was taken in the ambulance to his home.

The Daylight Store

IT'S YOUR PRIVILEGE

To get some of these values. Saturday, with one exception, was the largest day's business we have ever had. Solid values and not Saturday sales did it. There are just as good values for this week as there was last. The only thing we will be short of next week is some of our special values in Underwear. These we will not be able to get again.

Hosiery and Underwear.

Many kinds of Hosiery and Underwear are controlled by us, such as Munsing and Bennington. We doubt but what you have found out before now that they wear longer and fit better.

Children's extra heavy double fleeced and Ladies' Fleece Vests and Pants at 25c each.

Children's Union Suits and Dr. Denton's Sleeping Garments for 50c.

Children's Bennington Wool Underwear from 25c up, according to size.

Ladies' Munsing and Bennington Underwear at 50c and $1.00. (The fact that these goods are better than other makes does not make the price any more.)

Ladies' and Children's Hosiery.

We talk very strong about Black Cat Hosiery, believing it to be better than other makes. (Our customers tell us so.)

Black Cat Merino Hose for Boys or Girls will be warmest and outwear any 50c hose on the market. The price is 25c.

Extra values in Children's Hose at two pairs for 25c. (Would rather see you buy a Black Cat Hose and know that we had made a new Hosiery customer.)

Ladies' Heavy Fleece Hose in fast black at two pairs for 25c.

Ladies' Black Cat Fleece Hose. Here, again, is a Hose that we cannot do justice to. It equals any 38c Hose, and is made entirely different from all others, having a different style leg. Price, to introduce this lot, only 25c per pair.

Ladies' and Misses' Golf Gloves.

Early, before the advance in wool, we made a large purchase of Golf Gloves, so that now we are selling a good 38c Ladies' or Misses' Golf Glove at 25c.

LADIES' AND MISSES' SWEATERS.

These Sweaters were in the same purchase as the Golf Gloves, bought at the same difference of price, so that now we are selling a Child's Sweater of softest wool for 88c and a Ladies' Sweater for $1.50 (all colors), being fully 50 cents under price on the Ladies' Sweater.

BEDDING.

Bedding advertised last week, such as Pillow Slips at 10c, Blankets at 49c, Bed Spread at 98c and Bed Comforters at $1.00, the extra size at $2.00, are all in our window.

The Above Goods Are All in Keeping With This Weather.

A. P. ABBOTT & CO.

BOTH WERE CAUGHT.

Dalton, N. H., Man and His Brother's Wife of Hardwick.

Littleton, N. H., Nov. 6.—James Zase of Dalton and his brother's wife, Mrs. Charles Zase of Hardwick, Vt., for whom the Vermont officers have been hunting for the past six or seven weeks, have been caught and taken to St. Johnsbury. The man was taken yesterday at his mother's home in Dalton. He had previously escaped by jumping from a second story window in Lisbon in the dead of night with only night clothing on. The officers entered the house and found the woman.

Over Seventy, and Drunk.

Burlington, Nov. 6.—Alvin LaRock, over 70 years of age, who has been a frequent spectator in city court, found himself before Judge Mower Saturday as a respondent, the charge against him being intoxication. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs of $4.75.

LaRock's name appears on the list as a pauper, but the only record in the hands of the overseer of the poor shows that LaRock has twice within a year worked in the city wood yard and received pay for what he did. Under the circumstances the court did not think LaRock was a pauper and did not require him to disclose.
